LEVELS OF FRENCH : HOW DOES IT WORK?

Periodic immersion programme (excursions where learners are placed in an environment where the only means of communication is French. These places may include Nigeria French Language Village, Badagry, France, Togo, Republic of Benin, Ivory Coast etc.)

LAPO Institute Multilingual Programme

The LAPO Institute's new Multilingual Programme, focusing on French, Chinese, and German, will create an immersive environment for Nigerians to learn these languages. This will foster cultural exchange and broaden personal and professional opportunities. By equipping individuals with language and entrepreneurial skills, the program addresses the needs of those seeking to relocate abroad.

Foreign language skills have become crucial in today's globalized world, enabling individuals to engage in international business, diplomacy, tourism, and academic pursuits. While English remains the official language in Nigeria, incorporating the study of major languages such as French, Chinese, and German will significantly enhance the country's educational landscape and provide students with a competitive advantage in the increasingly interconnected global community.

The Multilingual Programme caters to a wide range of learners, from beginners to advanced speakers. It also offers specialized courses tailored to the needs of professionals in various fields.

A1

You will be able to:

- understand and use common expressions and basic phrases aimed at satisfying basic needs
- introduce yourself and others; ask and answer questions about personal details such as where you live, people you know and things you have
- interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help

You will be able to:

- understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment)
- communicate according to simple and routine tasks requiring simple and direct exchanges of information on familiar and routine matters
- describe, in simple terms, aspects of your background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need

A2

You will be able to:

- understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken
- produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest
- describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans

B1

You will be able to:

- understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in your field of specialization
- interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party
- produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options

C1/C2

You will be able to:

- understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning
- express yourself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions
- use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes
- produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
